AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court and counsel confer. Counsel present argument. Defendant addresses the Court. The Court places findings on the record and proceeds with sentencing. The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the Defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the Defendant, Julio Arnaldo Guillen, is hereby committed on Count One of the First Superseding Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of THIRTY (30) DAYS.

Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of THREE (3) YEARS under the following terms and conditions:

1. The Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions set forth in General Order 01-05;
2. The Defendant shall participate for a period of SIX (6) MONTHS in a home detention program which includes electronic monitoring and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The Defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation in the electronic monitoring, GPS, and/or voice recognition program. The Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
4. During the period of community supervision the Defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
5. The Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
6. The Defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the Defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order; and
7. The Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the Defendant.

USA vs. JULIO ARNALDO GUILLENDocket No.: LA CR11-00906 JAK

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the Defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the Defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on January 17, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the Defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

It is ordered that the Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $233,509.86 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of Defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $500, whichever is greater, during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the Defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

If the Defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

The Defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participant, Felix Guillen (Docket No. CR12-00695-JAK), for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the Defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the Defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The Defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the Defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The Defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss all remaining counts.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the Defendant be housed at a facility located in Southern California.

The bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
